

hello my name is george c mullins amtuer radio license is kc8qww my operator privileges is for technicians i would like to get my general license but i have tried to learn the morse code but i can not think that fast to write them down on paper because my memory is not that good any more i have only a 6 grade of education and i cant write that fast or spell that fast and i cant think that fast i am 56 years old and my hearing is not that good i do not work any more because i am disable i talk on the 2 meter radio alot but would like to talk on hf frequencies if you would drop the morse code requirements for hf the ones that are against fcc of dropping morse code requirements are ones that have the general license and advance and extra license these people have good jobs and alot of money and they are doctors lawyers engineers theses people are smart in the head they could go out and buy them a good hamradio they have alot of money when i george mullins went to work at the age of 16 years old i was only making 65 cents a hour when i got married to my wife in 1971 i was only making 65 dollars a week to go to house keeping on when i hurt my back in july 3 2002 i was only making 275 dollars a week how could buy a ham radio on this kind of money my family came first how could i learn morse code i could not afford it my annual income is 12,156 a year i had to rake and scrape to get a 2 meter radio and a kenwood 520se hf radio but i cant talk on it yet because of the morse code test so please give us poor people that are not smart enough to past the morse code test a chance to talk on hf requencies by dropping the morse code requirements for the hf frequencies thank you